

Welcome to Jacquie Rogers' Much Ado About Silver City

July 21 – 23, 2017
Silver City, Idaho

Registration Form

What you get:

- Outstanding Music!
Daria Paxton and her parents, Matt and Brenda, put on a wonderful performance last year and now Daria's an award-winning fiddler! She's an entertainer as well as a fine musician. Her parents pretty good, too.
- Melodrama
We'll also have a crazy-bad melodrama. It sure won't win any awards, but it'll definitely be fun. We're hoping Matt's mustache doesn't fall off this year.
- Auction for the Children's Tumor Foundation
Don't rub your nose or auctioneer Ken Walker might take your bid! Attending authors will bring baskets to be auctioned off. Proceeds go to find a cure for neurofibromatosis. We raised over $300 last year!
- Booksigning
All attending authors will be signing books in the lobby of the Idaho Hotel on Saturday afternoon.
- Historic Tours
Chelle Gluch will take you around to some interesting sites in the area and give you the low-down on the history there. Everyone loved her tours last year and she has even more planned for this year!

Also available in Silver City

- Trail rides! Contact Paul Nettleton 208-863-7960, 208-834-2237, email : sinkercreekoutfitters@historicsilvercityidaho.com
- Shopping! Pat's What Not Shoppe (across the street from the hotel)
- Rockhounding
- Sightseeing—it's like a living in a museum!

Fees: Registration money goes to pay entertainment and hotel expenses. Believe me, there won't be any money left over because we have to provide all our own entertainment just like they did in the 1860s. But in the remote case money is left after expenses, it will be donated to the Children's Tumor Foundation.

Full Weekend Registration fee: $25 per reader, $5 for each family member.
Example: Jill ReaderOrAuthor, husband, and two children would be $25+$15=$40.
Saturday only fee: $10 per reader, $2 for each family member.

Example: Jill Local and husband for Saturday only would be $10+$2=$12.

Send payment via PayPal to dianegarland12@gmail.com.

Please use the Friends and Family option or else include an extra $2 for the PayPal service charge.

- You can stay at the Idaho Hotel! (Register as soon as possible, please!)
- Or you can camp. If you need assistance to find rental equipment? Chelle Gluch can help you. She'll also let you know where you can camp. There's no charge for the campground but be warned, there are no facilities other than an outhouse.
- Will you bring a western costume? (optional, but please say yes!)
Are you willing to volunteer? (only registrants are eligible to volunteer)

Rooms: Book your hotel room as soon as possible please, because if they're all booked, we get the run of the entire hotel! If no one answers your call, try again later. The owners do all the work themselves so they miss calls sometimes.

Summer months: 208-583-4104.

Winter months: 208-863-4768 (Owner Jerri Nelson's cell phone).

Note: The Murphy address given on the website is no longer valid due to snow damage to the post office, so Jerri will tell you how to send payment for your reservation.

Meals: You can bring your own food (campers might opt to do this) or the Idaho Hotel has a full service restaurant. Believe me, you want to try every kind of Jerri's pie!!! And her French onion soup is to die for.

If you have special dietary needs, please inform Jerri (208-863-4768) at least a week, preferably a month, ahead of time (but if you do make a special request, please take advantage of it during your stay). There is no corner grocery store, so if you don't let them know what you need, it won't be available.

The short order restaurant is open except during the hours when Jerri isn't cooking and serving the family-style meal for breakfast and dinner. More on that to come, because believe me, those meals are fabulous. She'll take registration for family-style meals separately.

<http://www.historicsilvercityidaho.com/idahohotel/menu.htm>

(hasn't been updated for this year yet)

There will be time Saturday morning for trail rides and historical tours.

Trail rides: Book through Paul Nettleton.

<http://www.historicsilvercityidaho.com/sinkercreekoutfitters.html>

Historic tours: Chelle Gluch will guide a tour of the surrounding area for a contribution to her gasoline fund. There may be other tour guides as well. Registration for the tours will be in the hotel lobby where registered attendees can also pick up a goody bag.

Shopping: Yes, there's shopping! You can find oodles of great items (including the Hearts of Owyhee series) in Pat's What Not shop.

<http://www.historicsilvercityidaho.com/patswhatnotshop.html>

Summary

Four steps to having the best time of your life!

1. Send registration form to jacquierogersreaders@yahoo.com and fee to dianegarland12@gmail.com at PayPal.
2. Reserve your room at the Idaho Hotel (unless you're camping—Chelle Gluch will tell you where the best spot is when you get to Silver City).
3. Make reservations with Jerri Nelson for family-style meals.
4. Come to Silver City (preferably in a high clearance vehicle and be ready to party! Much Ado About Silver City registration will be in the lobby—the same desk where hotel patrons registered 150 years ago!